Endowment Brief History

Jeff Cederholm dedicated his career to conservation of salmon and aquatic species and their habitats. Jeff passed away in 2006 leaving a legacy of education, pioneering contributions to scientific literature and periodicals and instilling of passion for wild salmon conservation in many people for decades. After a successful American Fisheries Society Meeting hosted by the WA-BC Chapter in Seattle 2011, the Chapter resolved in 2013 to apply raised funds and subsequent contributions to the endowment to create a permanent source of financial support for educational expenses. The Scholarship is administered by the WA-BC Chapter Endowment Committee.

The Scholarship

The SEF will provide three equal value scholarships each school year, one each to an undergraduate student (pursuing a bachelor's or associate's degree), a student pursuing a master's degree, and a student pursuing a doctorate.

The following scholarship criteria apply:

Scholarships are intended for defrayment of educational expenses such as tuition, student fees, lab fees, books, supplies, room and board.

Scholarships will be awarded to students pursuing degrees in fisheries, aquatic sciences, or related fields at an accredited college or university.

Master's and PhD applicants must be Washington-British Columbia Chapter members at the time that their application is submitted.

Undergraduate applicants need not be Chapter members.

Scholarship for each given year will be equal amounts and will depend on the performance of the Endowment year to year. In 2019, three $1000 scholarships will be awarded.

How to Apply
