

AMERICAN FISHERIES SOCIETY

2020 Annual Meeting of the Western Division
hosted by the WA-BC Chapter
April 13 - 17, 2020

Pinnacle Harbourfront Hotel, Vancouver, BC

CONTINUING EDUCATION COURSE REGISTRATION OPEN

Want to learn a new skill or take a deep dive into a particular fisheries subject? The Western Division and Washington-British Columbia Chapter of the American Fisheries Society is happy to offer several continuing education courses to help you do just that! Continuing education courses will be held during the 2020 Annual General Meeting to be held in Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada on April 16th and 17th. More information including course descriptions, and registration forms can be found on our website: <https://wa-bc.fisheries.org/2020-meeting/program/continuing-education-workshops/>

1) Introductory + Intermediate JAGS for Bayesian Inference in Fisheries Sciences

Organizer(s)/Instructor(s): Ben Staton

Cost: $75 USD per day, or $100 USD for both days

Date and Time: Thursday (Introductory) and Friday (Intermediate), 8:00 am–5:00 pm

2) Introduction to dplyr and ggplot: Manipulating and Visualizing Data

Organizer(s)/Instructor(s): Dylan Glaser and Haley Tunna

Cost: $20 USD

Date and Time: Friday, 9:00 am–12:00 pm

3) Learning the Art of Gyotaku, the Japanese Art of Fish Printing

Organizer(s)/Instructor(s): Bruce Koike

Cost: $90 USD for professionals, $65 USD for students; $20 USD deposit is required to hold a space

Date and Time: Friday, 9:00 am–12:00 pm

4) Environmental DNA (eDNA) Overview: Sampling Techniques, Applications, Analysis, and ARTEMIS (Power Precision Analysis of eDNA Data)

Organizer(s)/Instructor(s): Gregory Schumer

Cost: $50 USD for professionals, $30 USD for students

Date and Time: Friday, 9:00 am–5:00 pm (time pending)

5) Sea Foraging Workshop and Cooking Demo

Organizer(s)/Instructor(s): Ficus Chan

Cost: $25

Date and Time: Thursday, 12:00–3:00 pm

Have any questions? Email Sam Wilson (swilson471@gmail.com) for additional information.